GULLS AND SKIPPER FIGHT OVER CARGO

STREAM OF STEAM PROVES ONLY ADEQUATE MEANS OF DRIVING AWAY HUNGRY BIRDS.

SEATTLE, December 27.—A spectacular naval fight, one as vicious as it was novel and amusing took place in the harbor of Seattle today between a gasoline launch manned by Captain Roy Lillie and an attacking force of 3,000 seagulls. Lillie had on cargo a lot of Christmas dainties, such as candies, oranges, figs, cakes, etc. which he sought to deliver aboard the French bark Demais for Captain and Madame Chateaufort, the master and his bride, who are on their honeymoon.

The launch had proceeded a third of the way out across the bay when the gulls swooped down upon it. Lillie, equipped with a pike, fought bravely but despite his efforts the hunger-maddened gulls tore open several sacks of fruit and candy and all but stampeded the commander overboard.

Almost blinded by the cloud of flapping wings, snapping beaks and tearing claws, Lillie fought frantically at first to save his cargo, and then to save himself.

Perceiving that he could make no headway with his pike blows and realizing that his eyes and clothing were liable to be torn from him if he continued on deck, the captain beat a hasty retreat inside the launch. He took a hose, attached it to a steam tap and turning it on full head, shot the seething steam and water into the midst of the fighting flock.

The gulls, sickened by the steam, ceased their attack and Lillie proceeded to the bark.

THAW CASE SEQUEL IN BANKRUPT COURT

HEAD OF POMPTON LAKE SCHOOL RUINED BY EVELYN'S TALE, GOES TO WALL.

NEW YORK, December 27.—The name of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw figuratively is written across the voluntary petition in bankruptcy filed in the United States Circuit Court this morning by Mrs. Mathilda Beatrice de Mille. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, of the saint-like face, who became chief figure of the Thaw tragedy, is the blight that has after a two years' struggle, forced the widow of the brilliant collaborator of Belasco two decades ago, and the mother of two successful playwrights of today, to plead before a court of law to be released from the obligation of her debts, that she may make a fresh effort.

For it was the story of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw as heard from her own lips on the witness stand during the trial of Harry K. Thaw that brought notoriety to the fashionable school.

Three months after the ending of the first Thaw trial, Mrs. de Mille closed her school. She saw the struggle against the notoriety gained through the Thaw trial would be in vain.

Mrs. de Mille hoped to win back a fortune by coming to this city and starting a play brokerage business with offices in the Astor Theatre building. It is in these offices that she has been toiling for many months, striving in vain against competition and the expected climax came today in the two lines upon the court calendar—the petition of a bankrupt.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

Never work one friend in the interest of another.

Riches don't amount to so much. Some of the happiest, most fortunate people we know are poor.

A woman wants men to have good times in a woman's way.

If you must lie, tell a good one, and then lay off for a time.

Every man claims that, when a boy, he was able to turn a somersault. But not one boy in a hundred can turn a somersault.

Never joke with a busy man. To a busy man a joke is so thin that he can see through it, and recognize the idiot on the other side.—Atchison Globe.

URGES SUBSIDY FOR SHIPS ON PACIFIC

GOTHAM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE INDORSES BILL NOW BEFORE CONGRESS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—At the regular monthly meeting today the chamber of commerce took a strong position in favor of the postal subsidy for ships running to South America or plying the Pacific ocean in the hope that government aid may restore the American merchant marine, which is fast disappearing from the high seas. The resolution adopted was as follows:

"Resolved That the chamber approve of bills S. 28, introduced by Mr. Gallagher, and H. R. 4,068, introduced by Mr. Humphrey, authorizing the postmaster general to pay for ocean mail service, under the act of March 3, 1891, in vessels of the second class on routes across the Pacific ocean or to ports of the south Atlantic 4,000 miles or more in length and outward voyage, at a rate per mile not exceeding the rate applicable to vessels of the first class as provided in said act.

Gustav M. Schwab said the government already paid a small subsidy to all trans-Atlantic lines.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

She is a wise woman who can laugh or cry at the psychological moment. The man who thinks the world is growing worse imagines he is growing better.

It is only a matter of time until the man with the borrowing habit runs out of friends.

Too many dollars in a man's pocket have been known to crowd the shame from under his hat.

Count your own faults before attempting to enumerate those of your neighbor.

A good many men who get credit for being close-mouthed are in reality too lazy to talk.

That Kansas man who, at the age of 75, recently took unto himself a wife is a living example of the fact that one never gets too old to be foolish.—Chicago News.
